

In France, on the First of April, it's not a public holiday. It's a little celebration.

We stick some paper fish on people's backs, teachers, pupils, children and family.

We do this :

